

An initiative to establish a Global Citizenship Hub in Bangalore, India

The Melton Foundation is a leading proponent of Global Citizenship practice worldwide. Since 1991, the Melton Foundation has focused its work on enabling individuals and organisations to work together on designing shared solutions to global issues. With the Melton Fellowship and other programs, we leverage cultural diversity and cross-sector collaboration to forge social change and innovation in emerging Global Citizenship Hubs and across the globe.

Active in six diverse regions in the world.

OUR AIMS

- Develop young leaders and to support impact around the Sustainable Development Goals.
- Nurture social-impact communities and ecosystems by connecting and convening motivated actors, institutions and organisations locally and internationally.
- Create opportunities and spaces to further education for advocacy and applied practices of Global Citizenship.

 SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

United Nations
SDGs 2030

Today's greatest challenges, from climate change to poverty, inequality to displacement, natural resource depletion to overpopulation, are global in nature. The finding of a solution needs collaborative action. But, too often they are approached from frameworks that disregard the agency and knowledge of local actors and 'grassroots' impact. We need collaborative approaches to achieve the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals.

GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP MODEL

Global Citizens are aware of the wider world and how it works, are committed to the collective good, have a sense of their own role in society, and take action towards building an equitable, sustainable, and peaceful world.

AWARENESS

We're seeking partners and participants with an applied knowledge about the diversity of contexts, norms and values around the world, the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and the challenges and interconnectedness of leveraging solutions to global issues locally.

RESPONSIBILITY

We're keen on partnering with those organizations, institutions, and/or individuals developing attitudes and ethical leadership traits in individuals and communities to foster individual ownership of global and local societal issues along with collaborative, non-hierarchical approaches towards tackling them.

ACTION

By building local 'hubs' for Global Citizenship, we aim to employ practical tools, experiences and skills to drive sustainable development, intercultural collaboration, in order to effect collective impact at the local level while pushing the needle globally.
